By signing the parent and student acknowledge that they understand during a student’s years of participation in one or more extracurricular activity in the Pine Tree ISD the student may be asked to provide a urine sample for drug analysis. The signature provides consent to any such drug testing conducted as part of the Pine Tree ISD Student Extracurricular Drug Use Prevention Program. The parent and student are agreeing that the student will not refuse to take any such test or otherwise dispute Pine Tree ISD’s right to conduct such tests on the student. The parent and student acknowledge that they have been given access to the policy through the student handbook either in printed or electronic form on the district website www.ptisd.org and have the right to ask questions concerning the program guidelines if any provisions are not understood.

This form must be complete with a signature from the parent/guardian and the student before the student can participate in any extracurricular activities.
